"The Stanton Genealogy"

Compiled by Edith Stanton Shackelton and Lealah May Smith

(Submitted to Onondaga County Library, Syracuse, N.Y. - 1962)

1. Edith Stanton Shackelton's data begins on page 37. She lived in California in 1962, and died in N.H. at the home of her daughter in 1974. Edith and Lealah were step-cousins and their common ancestor was John/2 Stanton. Lealah's ancestor was Henry, son of John/2 Stanton's 2nd marriage.
2. Lealah May Smith's data begins on page 17. Her maiden name was Eldred and she married first Spencer H. Stanton. [Her second marriage was to Harry W. Smith, but this does not show in the manuscript. Lealah E. Smith lived in Syracuse in 1944 and was there in the 1960's.]
3. The first five pages of the manuscript are about Robert/1 Stanton, his wife Avis Almy and their descendants through the fourth generation. [The name of Almy has never been found by me in any other reference, and the source for this name is not stated. rah] *
4. Three books are referenced: "Our Ancestors - The Stanton" by William H. Stanton, (pub. 1922)
"History of Spafford, Onondago Co., N.Y." by Collins.
"Wm. Wade Hanshaw Encyclopedia"
5. The compilers obtained their information by visiting and writing relatives and others; by consulting census, cemeteries and court house records, but very little documentation is cited.
6. Following are the 5th generation, children of John and Mary (Sherman) Stanton of Pownal, VT, with the page numbers where their family data begins: (Their names appear on page 6.)

1. Thomas S. Stanton	b. 1769	m. Mary Eldred	See page 8 of ms.
2. John Stanton	b. 1770		17
3. Mary Stanton	b. 1772	m. Russell Johnson	18
4. Clark Stanton	b. 1775		22
5. Samuel W. Stanton	b. 1777	m. Polly Gardner	23
6. Benjamin Stanton	b. 1780	m/1 Sally Sheldon m/2 Amy Perkins	34
7. Joseph Stanton	b. 1782		41
8. Lodowick Stanton	b. 1784	m. [Not in ms.]	41
9. William Stanton	b. 1786	m. [Not in ms.]	42
10. Sally Stanton	b. 1788	m. John Nobles	43
11. Susan Stanton	b. 1791	m. John Lawrence	44
7. Personal pronouns - Some can be identified as a statement by Lealah because she shows a given name along with the relationship.
8. Dates - The latest date shown through page 37 was 1944.
The latest date shown through page 41 was Dec. 1961.
The latest date shown through page 44 was 1934.
9. Spousal parental data. - This type of information appears primarily on pages 8-33, and sometimes generational data is given back to the first ancestor.

Note:

Ruth A. Hoepfer, researcher is a Stanton descendant from William/5 Stanton, No. 9 above. [Lived Mayville, not Mayfield.

Note: Edith D. Shackelton's granddaughter Patricia Diane (Shackelton) Johnson, (Mrs. Charles J.) typed the manuscript and has her grandmother's family records. In 1993 "Pat" lived at 4575 Campton Rd., Eureka, CA. And she had a P.O. Box 2535, McKinleyville, CA 95521.

In June 1999, when my husband and I moved to Wauwatosa, WI, I sent her a Change-of-address card which came back "Moved - no forwarding address."
(The Johnsons had three daus: Marian E., Lori, Edith D.)

I'm sending some pages of a 44 page genealogy I found at Onondaga County.
Public Library in 1979. There are two authors and the manuscript was typed about 1961/2 but most of the research ended about 1944. Call No.r929.2, St.

"The Stanton Genealogy" is preceded by "Comments" by Ruth A. Hoeper.

Following are the pages from this Stanton genealogy:

- Cover letter to Mr. Parsons (Librarian?) of Onondaga County Public Library.
- Title page "The Stanton Genealogy" by Edith Stanton Shackelton and Lealah May Smith.
 - a. Attached page for their relationship.
- Page 1 (Question & answer poss. fr. "Boston Transcript")
- Page 2 quotes two references Wm. H. Stanton's "Our Ancestors the Stantons & Wade Henshaw and seems to pick up some of Bob's narration.
- Page 3 continues the narrative style.
- Page 4 has a small article WHO ARE YOU? "A STANTON?"
- Page 4 (bottom) of begins and here AVIS ALMY shows up. (and now Bob has it.)
- Page 5 has more information half way through adding to what my R.I. Dictionary by Austin has. Where did these two ladies get the data?
- Page 6 Our John Stanton dies April 18, 1814, etc.
 - a. Bottom of page has article from "Collins History of Spafford, NY.
- Page 7 continues Collins article.

Pages 45 & 46 have cemetery and Stanton Bible listings.

(The last letter from Elmer E. Stanton certifies that the Bible is as stated and was used for the pension application of Calvin P. Stanton. Calvin P. Stanton was Edith Stanton Shackelton's father.)

Dear Amy and Tom:

As I promised some time ago, enclosed is a copy of the Stanton Family History which Grove Stanton sent me after Jay Stanton's funeral.

I'm also enclosing a copy of our Emmons Family History which Frank has brought down to date on our "tribe". You will notice that Thomas Emmons and Robert Stanton must have come to Boston from England about the same time and also were in the group who left Boston, because of religious differences, and went to Rhode Island where they founded a new Colony. The Emmons Family History recites that this group did this with the help of Roger Williams who also was a dissenter. John Stanton and wife, shortly after marriage in Rhode Island, immigrated to Vermont where he was buried at Pownal, Vt. Benjamin came to Spafford and is buried in the Stanton Cemetery, I believe. It is interesting to note that our lines are unbroken back to the first settler. This is unusual and something to be thankful for to those who did all the work. Grove Stanton told me that what made this possible is that the records are very accurate and complete in Rhode Island and Boston where all this information was obtained.

The dates when "Tom" and "Bob" came over here to help drive out the Indians was later than the Mayflower, so there's no use Amy of boasting about that. Its more probable they came on a cattle boat and all being farmers, they worked their way shovelling cow manure into the Atlantic Ocean.

Norma is to have her test at Dr. Bradley's Friday, A.M. I have to go to Syracuse soon and planned to go Friday, but the first bus does not arrive in Syracuse until noon. She seemd pretty depressed over the deafness and I can understand it. She is alone and I think we cheered her up some that evening. It was a complete suprise to me about her deafness, and when she wrote about it, I went up to see her soon as I could. I didn't get time that day to see the people in the State Office Bldg., I had business with, so I have to go again this next week. Will try to see you then.

In the meantime, best wishes to you all

STANTON GENEALOGY

Notes on a branch of the Rhode Island Stantons.

The immigrant ancestor of this branch was Robert Stanton, born in England in 1599. He married Avis  whose maiden name is unknown and came to New England sometime between 1632 and 1638.

His eldest son, Robert, was born in England in 1627.

The first record found of him in New England was in 1638 when he and several others were "admitted inhabitants of the Island of Aquidneck." In 1639 he and twenty eight others signed a "Compact acknowledging themselves subjects of His Majesty King Charles of England."

Aquidneck was the name of the island on which Newport is located. It was later called Rhode Island, and is, of course, the island from which the state takes its name.

Government on the Island of Aquidneck was first established by a small group of refugees from the Massachusetts Bay Colony who had been encouraged to leave the Bay Colony because of their non-conformist ideas on the interpretation of certain passages of the Bible. This group arrived and established government in 1638. No record appears to have been kept before that time.

Coddington was Governor and Phillip Sherman was Secretary of this group.

Newport was an important port of entry at that time and was the home of our branch of Stantons for several generations.

There was a Thomas Stanton living in Stonington, Conn. at about this time but there has been no proof so far as the writer knows that Thomas and Robert were in any way related.

The children of Robert (1) and Avis were:

STANLEY CENALOOT

Notes on a branch of the Rhode Island Censuses.

The youngest ancestor of this branch was Robert Censaloot, born in England in 1597. He married Ann "who was named in his will and came to New England sometime between 1637 and 1639.

His eldest son, Robert, was born in England in 1637.

The first record found of him in New England was in 1655 when he and several others were "admitted inhabitants of the Island of Aquidneck." In 1659 he and twenty others signed a "Compact acknowledging them selves subjects of His Majesty King Charles of England."

Aquidneck was the name of the island on which Newport is located. It was later called Rhode Island, and is, of course, the island from which the state takes its name.

Government on the Island of Aquidneck was first established by a small group of settlers from the Massachusetts Bay Colony who had been encouraged to leave the Bay Colony because of their non-conformity there on the interpretation of certain passages of the Bible. This group arrived and established government in 1639. No record appears to have been kept before that time.

Coadjutor was Governor and Philip Sherman was Secretary of this Group.

Newport was an important port of entry at that time and was the home of our branch of Censaloot for several generations.

There was a Thomas Censaloot living in Stonington, Conn. at about this time but there has been no proof as far as the writer knows that Thomas and Robert were in any way related.

The children of Robert (I) and Ann were:

I	Robert	born in England	1637
II	Ann	born in Newport	1640
		married Henry Tibbatts, died	1708
III	Mary	born in Newport	1642
		In 1697 a Mary Censaloot was publicly whipped in the Bay Colony for being a member of the Synagogue (Quakers). The early Rhode Island Censaloots were Quakers but she may not have been the daughter of Robert.

John Horndale, whom he married "in the Friends Meeting" in 1667. His second wife was Mary Clarke Cranston, daughter of Jeremy Clarke and Frances Latham. She was the widow of Governor Cranston.

The following children by Mary Horndale:

I	Mary	born 6/4/1668, mar. John Coggeshal, d. 1747.
II	Hannah	born 11/7/1670, m. Edward Carr 10/6/1688 nine children 1689 to 1708, died 1712.
III	Patience	born 1672, died young
IV	John (3)	born in Newport April 22, 1674, died in the town of Richmond, R. I., 1762.
V	Content	born 12/20/1675
VI	Robert	born 1677, m. Penelope---, d. 1712, no chil.
VII	Benjamin	born 3/13/1684, m. Martha Tibbetts, d. 1760.

John (2) by his second wife, Mary Clarke Cranston, had:

VIII	Henry	Henry married first, Mary Hull and moved to Carteret, N.C. There were seven children by this marriage. He married as his second wife, Lydia Albertson, and had four children. A son, Benjamin, of the second marriage was a wealthy land owner and ship builder of Beaufort, N.C. Benjamin married Abigail Macy of Nantucket I. After the death of Benjamin, Abigail emigrated to Ohio with her children. A grandson, Edwin M. Stanton, was Sec. of War under Lincoln. A complete record of this branch of the family can be found in "Our Ancestors, The Stantons" by William Henry Stanton in any large library.
------	-------	--

John (3) third generation, son of John (2) and Mary Horndale was born in Newport 4/22/1674. He married, first, Elizabeth Clarke, daughter of Latham Clarke, granddaughter of Jeremy Clarke and Frances Latham. (See "Frances Latham, Mother of Governors").

A deed was recorded by John Stanton of Westerly which conveyed land in Newport "to my brother Robert which was bequeathed to me by my grandfather John Horndale."

Twelve children were born to John and Elizabeth between 1699 and 1721. Elizabeth died 9/10/1730. John married for his second wife, Susannah Lanphere, daughter of Theodosius Lanphere and Rahel Givney. Susannah was born in 1716, married John as his second wife 10/16/1734, was the mother of thirteen and was left a widow 2/22/1762. She married Peter Boss for her second husband and died in 1807 aged ninety one.

Vital statistics are found in the records of Charleston and Richmond, the town of Richmond having been formed by sub-dividing Charlestown in 1747.

A deed by John Stanton of Richmond in 1736 conveyed land in Newport to Robert Brown, merchant for 4000 pounds. It was signed by John and Susannah Stanton. The will of John Stanton of Richmond drawn in 1758 and allowed in 1762 mentions wife Susannah, the following children,- David, Robert, Benjamin, Samuel, John, Susannah, Hannah, Elizabeth, Sabra and Mary and the following grandchildren,- John Stanton, Hannah Easton, John Casey and William Stanton of Nantucket. Some Genealogists at one time did not believe that the John Stanton who married Elizabeth Clarke was the same John Stanton who later married Susannah Lanphere and so was the father of twenty five children. The names mentioned in his will and the names of his children in the foregoing record seem to tie these families together.

The children of John (3) and Elizabeth Clarke were,-

Edited by Louis Coffin

Introduction

by Will Gardner

Pub. by General Printing Co.

Cincinnati, Ohio, cc. 1962

Monticello Hist. Soc.

It will be well to call the reader's attention to the fact that before 1850 when England and the Continent began the Old Style and adopted the New Style calendar the year began on March twenty fifth and not on January first as at present. January, February and parts of March came at the end of a year instead of the beginning. If you should happen to read that such or such an event was carried out April first, and that their first born on the 10 of the same year that is 1801, it happened almost a full year afterward.

Elizabeth (12) of the first family died in 1743. A daughter of the second family born in 1744 was named Elizabeth (13). The first Elizabeth died at the age of twenty-eight after the birth of her second child. The second Elizabeth was a party of an Irish Arden triangle. She married first John Fordine, a Quaker. Her second John suspected that he was going out to bring her an article of work. He did not return and Elizabeth had no word from him. After several years Elizabeth, believing that her husband was dead, married Peter Ferguson. They had two children and were living happily when he called John Fordine. The reason given was that "the first lady had been something of a spy as he brought in an article of work" after a conference. It was decided that Elizabeth should go back to John. They moved to Canada. It seems that John, being a Quaker, had feared for his safety and had fled to New Britain.

It might be well to call the reader's attention to the fact that before 1850 when England and the Continent began the Old Style and adopted the New Style calendar the year began on March twenty fifth and not on January first as at present. January, February and parts of March came at the end of a year instead of the beginning. If you should happen to read that such or such an event was carried out April first, and that their first born on the 10 of the same year that is 1801, it happened almost a full year afterward.

John Stanton of the first generation was born about 1700 and died child of John of Newport was born May 14th 1744 at Charleston, S. C. He married Mary Thomas, daughter of Philip Thomas, Secretary of the first Rhode Island government established by the colony and others in 1639. She was also descended from Richard Warren and John Francis from both passengers of the Mayflower.

The Warren family is the original historical and genealogical. See Warren, Vol. 2, pp 12-14 and 100-101, and Vol. 3, p. 171.

- (24) Joseph, b. 3/26/1757.
(25) Hannah, b. 1759.

It will be noted that there is a repetition of names in the foregoing list of names of children of the two families. It was not unusual in colonial times to repeat names of children in a family when the first bearer of the name had died.

Elizabeth (9) of the first family died in 1742. A daughter of the second family born in 1743 was named Elizabeth (18). The first Elizabeth died at the age of twenty-eight after the birth of her second child. The second Elizabeth was a party of an Enoch Arden triangle. She married first John Fordice, a Tory. One evening John announced that he was going out to bring in an armful of wood. He did not return and Elizabeth had no word from him. After several years Elizabeth, believing that her husband was dead, married Peter Kenyon. They had two children and were living happily when he walked John Fordice. The record states that "he must have been something of a wag as he brought in an armful of wood." After a conference it was decided that Elizabeth should go back to John. They moved to Canada. It seems that John, being a Tory, had feared for his safety and had fled to Nova Scotia.

It might be well to call the readers attention to the fact that before 1752 when England and the Colonies dropped the Old Style and adopted the New Style calendar the year began on March twenty fifth and not on January first as at present. January, February and part of March were at the end of a year instead of the beginning. If you should happen to read that some of your ancestors were married say April first and had their first born on Mar. 20 of the same year don't be upset, it happened almost a full year afterward.

John Stanton of the 4th generation from Robert and 20th child of John of Newport was born May 4th 1748 at Charlestown, R. I. He married Mary Sherman, descendant of Phillip Sherman, Secretary of the first Rhode Island government established by Coddington and others in 1638. She was also descended from Richard Warren and from Francis Cocke both passengers of the Mayflower.

Dear Bob,

In Oct. 2002 I sent to you some Lawrence, Palmer, Sherman & Stanton & William Stanton & Staunton, Va.

Part IV, Sec. C there is a typed headstone inscription but no picture. Ben set out to find pictures he knew he had taken.

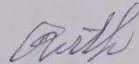

There are two difference shots. Unfortunately, the epitaph cannot be read.

The date of April 14, 1814 as death date is clear.

Every one who read the headstone used that date, but records differ.

Glad I can not send you a copy. Unusual when dates show before a death, but so be it.

Love,

HEADSTONE

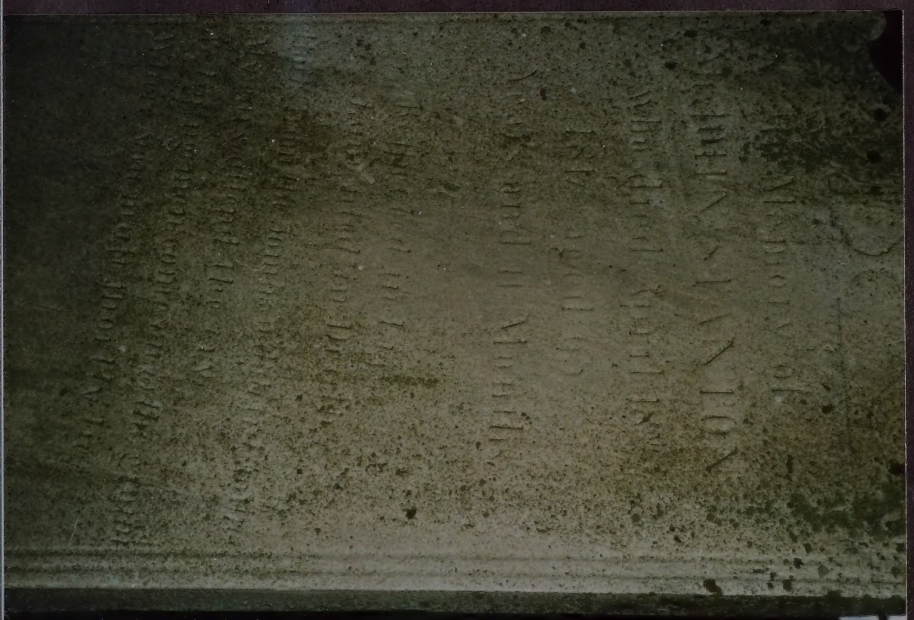

In Memory of
JOHN STANTON
who died April 18th
1814 aged 65
Years and 11 Months

STANTON

POWNA, Vermont

From: New Eng. Hist. & Gen. Reg., v.65 (1911), pp.343-9

"Pownal, Vt. which is geographically among the Berkshire Hills and easily surpasses most of the town of Berkshire County, Mass., in beauty, is an extremely interesting town genealogically. It is really a portion of East and West Greenwich and Kingston, R.I. transplanted intact to Vermont. As the Bates, Sherman, Gardner, Myers, Niles, Matteson, Barber, Pratt, and other families inter-married in Rhode Island until they were practically all related, so did these same families upon removal to Pownal continue the same practice, and have continued it ever since. A comparison of the Pownal town records with those of East and West Greenwich shows curious results--the similarity of names and the combination of names being astonishing.

INFORMATION

ON

LAWRENCE, PALMER, SHERMAN, STANTON (& WM. STANTON) & STAUNTON, VA

- I Lawrence Family Reunion, Jan 18, 1881, Oxford, Michigan w/comments.
& back has obits of Hannah L. Barber & Minerva L. Fuller Green.
- II Norwich, CT vital records on Jos. Palmer, & son of Samuel Lawrence there.

- III SHERMAN. Correction to lineage referencing author. (down to R.A. (Hindmarsh) Hooper.

A Some refer. referring to William³ Sherman, (Eber², Phillip¹) & comments on Dr. Roy. V. Sherman's book w/card nos. for Frank D. Sherman's research.

Notes:

- 1. (INA METRAS met a Sherman cousin/? who carried two red books.
One by Frank D. Sherman; the other by Dr. Roy V. Sherman!!)
- 2. I called Dr. Sherman in CA but he didn't have any of his books left.
- IV About Sherman name, Stanton name & Pownal, VT w/Sherman name.
 - A Brief lineage fr. Philip SHERMAN & how Ruth & INA are related & about when our mother's met.
 - B Long article on Pownal, VT.
 - C Headstone inscription of John Stanton. w/short article on Pownal.
 - D. JACOB SHERMAN'S COPY-BOOK WITH GENEALOGICAL NOTES. Great reading.
(From which I copied the short Pownal article.)
(Surnames of Bissel, Sherman, Gardner & Myers lineages.)
- V About R.I. bk w/Stanton, our Stantons, Stanton Chart
 - A Pages copied fr. "Genealogical Dict. of Rhode Island. I have the 1978 Edition which has referenced corrections at end of bk.

- VI About WILLIAM STANTON & his family, the PALMER LINEAGE, getting from VT to places in NY, on to OXFORD, MI & ending in SAGINAW, MI, !!

Notes(The details we researched in Mayville, Chautauqua County, NY

- 1. in 1981 during a week's stay equaled quite a collection of documents.) a.) NY Area key: 1825, 35', 45', 55', 65' & 75'.
- 2. (We met a widow, cousin of a relative who had died very suddenly leaving his genealogy papers lying all over a sunroom floor. Mrs. Smith watched Ben & I sorting the papers we wanted to copy. It was told to us by someone else that she though her husband hid money in his papers. He had the SMITH genealogy.)
- 3. (My grand mother Sarah Ann Martin, dau. of John E. & Lorinda Parker, was born in Oxford, MI. in 1856. Her parent's divorce papers sound like a TV soap opera. After the divorce, John E. Martin took his dau. Sarah Ann; Lorinda took her young son born 1858 in Saginaw & went to sister's home in Hillsdale County, MI. She was rumored to have married a Bailey who was in Civil War. It took me hours at National Archives looking at index of Bailey names w/wife w/name similar to Lorinda. The 10th Pension file was correct!!)
- 4. (The most interesting photograph ^{have} is of Lurinda Parker Martin taken in 1859 holding a dead baby in her arms. Stillborn at sister's.)

- VII Papers found in trip to STAUNTON, VA,

A Four pages about the STANTON-STAUNTON FAMILY w/Lineage & who the city was named after, & Seal of City.

B Two letters re.a Robert W. Staunton (Esq.on one); the 2nd letter has most interesting address I've ever seen.

Note. My husband, H. Benner Hooper's Gt.gd.father Ferdinand Riedel in a Confederate Prison Hospital of a gunshot wound. We found the headstone of Fer'd Riedel in National Cemetery there He died Staunton, VA.

III SHERRMAN, Correction to lineage relationship author. (down to R.A.)
(Bismarck) Hooper.
A same refer. relating to William Sherman (Eber, Philip) a comment on Dr. Roy V. Sherman's book w/ card nos. for Frank D. Sherman's research.

Notes:

1. (IWA METEAS was a Sherman cousin?) who carried two red books.
One by Frank D. Sherman; the other by Dr. Roy V. Sherman!!
2. I called Dr. Sherman in CA but he didn't have any of his books left.

IV About Sherman name, Stanton name & Fowmali, VT w/ Sherman name.
A First lineage is Philip SHERRMAN & how Ruth & IWA are related about when our mother's MAT.

B Long article on Fowmali, VT.
C Headstone inscription of John Stanton, w/ short article on Fowmali.
D. JACOB SHERRMAN'S COPY-BOOK WITH GENEALOGICAL NOTES. Great reading.
(From which I copied the short Fowmali article.)
(Surname of Sherrman, Sherman, Sherman & Fowmali lineage.)

V About R.A. de Stanton, our Stanton, Stanton Chart
A Pages copied fr. "Genealogical Dict. of Rhode Island. I have the 1978 Edition which has referenced corrections at end of pt.
B Brief outline of our STANTON LINEAGE (See 10) for me.

C STANTON FAMILY CHART showing our line; want info on WM. STANTON
Note: back page indicates type of documents, Gene. info, etc.

VI About WILLIAM STANTON & his family, the FAIRBANK LINEAGE, getting from VT to places in NY, on to OHIO, MI & ending in EAGLEVIEW, MI. !!

Notes: (The details we researched in Mayville, Chautauque County, NY in 1981) during a week's stay equaled quite a collection of documents. 1. I was May 1981, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

2. We met a widow, cousin of a relative who had died very suddenly leaving his genealogy papers lying all over a narrow floor. Mrs.
Smith watched him & I sorted the papers we wanted to copy. It was told to me by someone else that she thought her husband hid money in his papers. He had the SMITH genealogy.

3. My Grand mother Sarah Ann Martin, dau. of John E. & Louisa Barker. was born in Oxford, MI. in 1838. Her parent's divorce papers sound like a TV soap opera. After the divorce, John E. Martin took his dau. Sarah Ann; Louisa took her young son born 1858 in Saginaw & went to reside in Illinois County, MI. She was removed to have married a father who was in Civil War. It took me hours at National Archives looking at index of family names w/ wife similar to Louisa. The 10th Census list was correct!!

4. The most interesting photograph is of Louisa Barker Martin taken in 1839 holding a dead baby in her arms. (Billboard at state's.)

VII Papers found in trip to STANTON, VA.

A Four pages about the STANTON-STANTON FAMILY w/ lineage & who the city was named after, & Seal of City.
B Two letters re. Robert W. Sherman (Dead on one); the 2nd letter has most interesting address I've ever seen.

Notes: My husband, R. Benger Hooper's Ol. Gd. Father Ferdinand Hodel is a descendant of John Hodel of a German woman. We found the residence of Fer'd Hodel in National Cemetery there He died Sherman, VA.
